

The Anatomy of HOPE

Sunday, June 14

Prisoners of Hope • Deuteronomy 31:23

Prelude

Guide Us, O Thou Great Jehovah • Clay Christiansen
Dr. Amy Stewart, organ

Welcome

Rev. Kera Watts

Ringing of the Tower Bells

Call to Worship

Ken & Hyacinth Hall

Hymn

Leaning on the Everlasting Arms

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Rev. Renee Hoke

Scripture • Deuteronomy 31:23

Sermon

Prisoners of Hope

Rev. Kera Watts

Solo

The Lord Is My Shepherd • Edwin T. Childs
Asa Santos, tenor

Invitation to Offering & Communion

Rev. Jessica Vacketta & Rev. Shannon Moore

Words of Institution

Prayer for the Bread & Cup

Elder: Brian Gibson

The Sharing of the Bread & Cup

Rev. Jessica Vacketta & Rev. Shannon Moore

Closing Words & Benediction

Rev. Kera Watts

Postlude

O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing
Robert A. Hobby

Prayer Concerns and Joys:

We celebrate with Jason & Lindsey Price following the birth of their daughter Birdie Elizabeth Price on June 8. Big sister is Stella Price.

Our prayers are with Paul & Mary Weide and family following the death of their son-in-law Bill Reese on June 3.

We pray for the family and friends of Mildred Jones following her recent death.

We pray for an end to systemic racism and for justice and equality for people of color in our community, our nation, and around the world.

We hold in prayer those with the coronavirus, those who care for them, and those who are suffering from anxiety during this time.

As a Global Ministries Congregation, we pray this week for Morocco and Mission Coworker, Emmanuela Loccident.

The Anatomy of HOPE

Where do we find hope when our world is turned upside down? What do we hold on to when we're worried about our health, our families, our jobs? What can we count on in the face of uncertainty, isolation, fear and even death?

Hope is tenacious. Hope is audacious. Hope is positively contagious.

June 14

Prisoners of Hope • Deuteronomy 31:23

June 21 • Father's Day

Faith, Hope & Love • Colossians 3:12-17

June 28

Making All Things New • Revelation 21:1-5