Prayer Concerns and Joys:

We surround in prayer Shannon Moore and family following the death of his father, Hogan Moore, January 26.

Our prayers are with the family and friends of Cecil Morgan following his death January 26.

We surround in prayer Jim Smith, Amy and Austin Nettle, Luke Nettle and Callie Nettle following the death their wife, mother and grandmother, Susan Smith, January 22.

Our prayers are with Britt Feik and Meagan Feik following the death of their wife and mother, Kelly Runnion Feik, January 21. We also pray for Kelly's mother, Rosemary Runnion, and her brother, Johnny Runnion.

We surround in prayer Mary Curry following the death of her husband, Charles Curry, January 21. We also pray for Charles and Mary daughters, Claire McInnis and Anne Phillippe and their families.

Please keep Matt Chandler, Executive Director of Disciples Crossing, and his family in your prayers. Matt's father, Steve Chandler, passed away on January 16th.

We pray for God's steadfast love to strengthen and guide our nation during this time of transition and the new administration.

We pray for an end to systemic racism and for justice and equality for people of color in our community, our nation, and around the world.

We hold in prayer those with the coronavirus, those who care for them, and those who are suffering from anxiety during this time.

As a Global Ministries Congregation, we pray this week for Indonesia and Mission Coworker, John Campbell-Nelson.
