

Minister to Students

University Christian Church in Fort Worth, Texas is seeking a full-time Minister to Students. This individual will build and manage a team of full-time professionals that equip youth and young adults to transform the world by living out Christ's courageous love. Ideal for this role would be an innovative, detail-oriented, hands-on visionary who empowers teams of leaders within a sustainable model of ministry. This position reports to the Executive Minister.

Primary responsibilities for the position include:

- Mentor and equip full-time staff leaders
- Map out the overarching scope & sequence of discipleship from 6th-12th grades and post-high school, college-aged young adults
- Build and foster bridges of connection and community with students at the neighboring Texas Christian University (TCU) campus
- Actively engage with youth, young adults, and families, both inside and outside the church
- Recruit, train, coordinate, and support teams of volunteer leaders
- Create pathways for youth and young adults to serve within the church and community, regularly participating in intergenerational opportunities
- Provide supportive resources for parents
- Organize the infrastructure of the ministry, ordering paperwork, guiding processes, implementing systems, communicating with stakeholders, and managing child protective policies
- Steward the budget and maintain the financial accountability of the ministry

Qualifications for this position are:

- Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university preferred
- Experience leading teams towards sustainability, either in a faith-based setting or a related field
- Experience implementing vision in relevant, meaningful ways
- Ability to communicate effectively and professionally, both orally and in writing
- Ability to organize and keep accurate and detailed records
- Strong competence and comfort with technology, including effectively utilizing platforms of digital communications and social media
- Ability to work as part of a team
- Demonstrated leadership skills and strong work ethic
- Passion for helping youth and young adults know the love of Christ
- A person of Christian faith with an understanding of and alignment with the theology of a congregation in the Disciples of Christ tradition, valuing and celebrating all people
