Words from our Senior Minister

This Must Be the Place

We have reached the end of a very interesting decade. A businessman-turned-reality-TV-host is the leader of the free world. The Chicago Cubs won the world series. A social network which you once used to look at the photos of your cousin’s kids ended up tipping the election and has altered the way in which people connect with one another. We communicate extensively with emojis, and though people are constantly looking at their phones, little of that time is spent truly connecting with others.

It’s all enough to leave you scratching your head and feeling somewhat... unrooted.

As we barrel into a new decade, I’ve been examining the idea of what a home truly means. Is home the place where you grow up? Where you live now? The community which shaped you the most? And maybe your answer to these questions is all the same place. Or, maybe it is more complicated.

For me, the ‘10s were momentous: I got married, thus doubling the number of my children. I left the church I was raised in and landed my dream job (this one!) and I moved to Texas.

Yet, there is something about adulthood—even in my 50’s, with a family to feed, a church to lead and bills to pay—which feels somewhat transient. Maybe that is because in the last ten years we’ve purchased three houses and moved several times.

I have been amazed during my time here in Fort Worth by how many of you have lived here your entire lives. You went to Alice B. Carlson, McClean, and Paschal; you grew up, got baptized and married at UCC, and have never left Cowtown. So, for a lot of you, the answer to the question: “Where is home?” may be simple.

But what about people who aren’t from here? People who are looking to be included and feel connected, but find it difficult to break into this strong, tight-knit community; this “great big small town?”

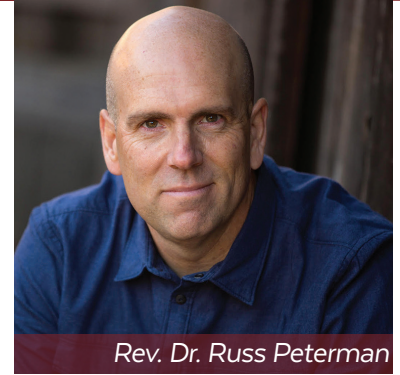

There is a line from a Talking Heads song that says, “Home, it’s where I want to be / But I guess I’m already there.” I guess what I’ve come to realize is this: Your home is where your people are. They might be your parents and siblings. Your friends. Your spouse. Your children. Your church.

Kelli and I are so thankful for the way you have welcomed our family. We love this congregation, this city and are proud to call this home. Thank you for being our people.

I see wonderful things ahead for this congregation in the next decade. And there is no place I’d rather be, nothing I’d rather be doing, no one I’d rather being doing it with, than what we are all doing here together.

Happy New Year, church! Many rich blessings to you and yours in the days and decade ahead.

Rev. Dr. Russ Peterman, Senior Minister

How to connect and get involved at UCC

See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? (Isaiah 43:19)

Happy New Year! I am so energized and enthusiastic about all the exciting things on the horizon for University Christian Church in 2020! Last year we approved our new vision and mission statements; this year we will explore what it means to live out our core values with open minds and loving hearts. UCC's various ministry areas will continue to provide opportunities for you to seek the sacred, commit to love, and be empowered to serve as the hands and feet of Jesus in the world.

One such occasion will take place on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 2020. The UCC Chancel Choir and full orchestra will perform the world premiere of a newly commissioned piece in Bass Hall. Also on the program will be Janet Pummill playing Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" and Amy Stewart and Amy Prickett performing beautiful pieces by Gerald Finzi. Tickets are super affordable ($11 · $22 · $45) and on sale now at basshall.com. This will be an exciting way for us to spread God's love outside of our doors in downtown Fort Worth. I hope each and every one of you will choose to invite a neighbor and attend this special musical celebration.

—Todd Prickett, Minister of Music

JANUARY'S FEATURED EVENTS & PROGRAMS

The following events and programs are highlights; specific to this month.

44th Annual Boar's Head & Yule Log Festival

January 4 and January 5
4:00pm | 6:00pm

The New Year not only brings peace and joy from Christ's birth, it also brings UCC's 44th Annual Boar's Head & Yule Log Festival. Come celebrate the triumph of good over evil and the true meaning of Christmas the first weekend of January. The BHLYLF is a wonderful way to celebrate Epiphany and ring in the New Year. Beautiful music, costumes and pageantry make the festival a unique experience you don't want to miss!

Due to the Armed Forces Bowl at TCU on Saturday, January 4, this year's performances will be at 4:00pm and 6:00pm on Saturday, January 4 and Sunday, January 5. Limited reserved seating will be on sale for $15 beginning Monday, December 2. As always, there are hundreds of free seats available.

This year's Boar's Head Feast is canceled and due to return in 2021.

Volunteers are needed to help count and survey unsheltered homeless persons who live on the streets, in camps and in vehicles within Tarrant and Parker County. Register online at ahomewithhope.org.

17TH ANNUAL "REEL RELIGION" FILM FESTIVAL Friday, January 24 and Saturday, January 25 at UCC

Films of religious, cultural and philosophical significance, followed by a facilitated discussion. Movies are free and open to the public. Register at lifelong.tcu.edu.
